MerriLyn Gibbs is the founder and owner of Assistants 4 Hire, the business she built to help people focus on what they love... Assistants 4 Hire is a dynamic venture founded and led by MerriLyn Gibbs dedicated to enabling business owners to focus on their passions. Her mission is to empower entrepreneurs and professionals by offering top-tier administrative support and consultancy services.

Assistants 4 Hire is a solution for busy business leaders looking for more hours in a day. The typical client is running a small business, anywhere from 25 employees down to solopreneurs, for years at a time. Clients love the adaptability of the team to support them in their evolving needs; most clients stay on for 2 or more years and usually find their way back to Assistants 4 Hire after a while. Because MerriLyn's team includes professionals from all different backgrounds and specialties, Assistants 4 Hire can support business leaders from ANY industry.

MerriLyn's passion is to help each one of her clients get back their time to pursue the things that they Love in business or in life. Through assessing, planning and executing administrative processes with her team, she seeks to give back at LEAST one hour a day to each one of her clients. She also applies the same principles to her own life, where she embraces motherhood, cherishes her romantic partnership, indulges in golf, enjoys salsa, cultivates friendships, and explores the world through travel.

Assistants 4 Hire is all about helping business owners thrive by empowering them to focus on what they love. This company, composed of specialists in their fields, works with businesses of all kinds to manage their administrative tasks, create a digital media strategy, run weekly analytic reports, and more!

In addition to managing her team and executing the daily tasks of assessment and planning for her clients, MerriLyn has expanded her services even further...
She also offers business seminars and workshops and has recently begun direct productivity coaching! With her extensive experience in the industry, MerriLyn is a pro at helping fellow business owners pursue success.

You Do the Things You Love... We Do the Rest!
